

The khanda is a symbol to Sikhs of God and truth. The circle in the centre represents God being eternal - it has no beginning and no end.

Aum or Om is the symbol that Hindus use in prayer and it means "God".

The two interlinked triangles form the six pointed Star Of David which is the symbol of Judaism.

The wheel is the Buddhist symbol of life, an endless cycle of birth and rebirth.

The cross is the symbol that reminds Christians that Jesus died on the cross to save us.

In Islam, the moon and the stars are a symbol to represent how Islam can guide us through life, just as the moon and stars guide people in the dark.