

Question One

What is the Bahá'í?

Bahá'í

Question Two

Do they believe in God?

Bahá'í

Question Three

Do they have a prophet?

Bahá'í

Question Four

Do they have vicars?

Bahá'í

Question Five

Where do they meet?

Bahá'í

Question Six

How often do they meet?

Bahá'í

Question Two

Yes. God is described as a personal God, unknowable, inaccessible... eternal, omniscient, omnipresent and almighty.

Question One

The Bahá'í faith is a world religion founded in 1844. It is the youngest independent world religion.

Question Four

No. The Bahá'í faith doesn't have vicars or 'spiritual leaders'. But people can be elected or appointed into the administrative order.

Question Three

Yes, Bahá'u'llah is a prophet and founder of the Bahá'í faith.

Question Six

Bahá'ís meet every 19 days and there are 9 holy days throughout the year.

Question Five

They tend to meet in homes or Bahá'í centres. There are 'houses of worship' on every continent.

