

Directions to St Peter's Saltley Trust by Public Transport

By Bus from Birmingham City Centre

Buses to Harborne depart regularly from stop SH3 on Colmore Row, next to St Philip's (Anglican) Cathedral. Take the number 22, 23, 23A, 24, 29 or 29A buses, alighting at the Green Man pub in Harborne. (Current single fare is £2.20, or £4.40 for a daysaver ticket – no change given).

Once outside the Green Man, cross over Harborne High Street and walk back towards the crossroads the bus has just come through. Turn left onto Nursery Road. St Peter's Saltley Trust is No.3, on your left.

By Train/Walk

The nearest train station to the Trust offices is University, which is on the cross-city line between Lichfield and Redditch/Longbridge. Trains to University can be caught from Birmingham New Street, every 15 minutes or so.

At the main entrance to the hospital turn right, and walk up the footpath, crossing the road at the Zebra Crossing, and walking up past the Women's Hospital, keeping it on your left.

In front of you, you will see a road lined by an avenue of trees, blocked off by bollards at the hospital end. This is Metchley Park Road – keep straight on along this road until you reach a roundabout at the bottom of the hill.

At the roundabout, take the 2nd exit (Somerset Road), towards Harborne. (Note that Somerset Road is also the 3rd exit on the roundabout, but ignore this!).

Walk along Somerset Road, with BlueCoat School on your right. At the end of Somerset Road you will see the Green Man pub in front of you. Walk towards the front of the pub, and then cross the road at the lights (Harborne High Street). Nursery Road is straight in front of you. St Peter's Saltley Trust is No. 3, on your left.
